

A GRAND, UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS.

Notwithstanding the very disagreeable weather our store was crowded to the doors with enthusiastic and delighted people on opening day.

EVERYONE'S VERDICT—That OUR STOCK IN ITS VARIETY LEAVES NOTHING TO BE DESIRED AND IN ITS NOVELTY TOWERS OVER OTHER STOCKS LIKE A MOUNTAIN ABOVE A PLAIN.
Magnificent Dress Goods,
Lovely Wash Fabrics,
Exquisite Embroideries.
PERFECT HOSIERY and MEN'S FURNISHINGS—IN EVERY DETAIL.

THE GRANDEST VALUES EVER SHOWN.

BASSETT & CO.,

"WRECKERS OF HIGH PRICES."

WHY HE WOULDN'T WORK

He Remembered the Advice Given to Brother Zebby.

His Family Had Been Washed Down the Creek, But He Didn't Worry—Tells How Zeb Went Up the Hill "Bookery, Bookery."

C. F. H. H. 1889.
W. J. Hoglin, an adventurous Eastern capitalist, recently bought a large tract of timber land lying near the Indian Territory. Mr. Hoglin set up a saw-mill, which was easy enough, but when he attempted to operate the mill he was confronted by a difficulty which he had not anticipated. He could not secure the necessary help. The neighboring people, either squatters in the original or very close imitations, exhibited no interest in the enterprise. They would sit about, lazily watching the work, but when asked to help load logs or in any way assist the head sawyer, they would silently slouch away or drawlily make excuses.

THE MAN THAT WOULDN'T WORK.

"My good man," said Hoglin, addressing an old fellow who sat on a log "can I not employ you?"
"What fur?" he answered, leaning over and propping up his chin with his hand.
"To help draw logs."

"What do you want draw logs fur?"
"Why, to saw them into boards, of course."

"What do you want saw 'em into boards fur?"
"Oh, come now—"

"Can't come when I'm already here."

"You know what I mean. I want to hire a number of hands to help run this mill; that's what I want. What are you doing?"

"Sittin' right here."

"Oh, I know that."

"Then what made you ask me?"

"Now, look here."

"I'm lookin'."

"I want to hire you."

"Still lookin'."

"And will give you a dollar and a half per day. What do you say?"

"Say to what?"

"To the offer, of course."

"I suppose you are opposed to work on general principles?"

missin', but I reckon they'll turn up all right."

"I must say that you are the most peculiar being I ever saw."

"Yes, so is a shote."

IT WORKED FIRST RATE.

"Why are you sitting up there straddling that fork?" the mill man asked, after a short silence.

"Well, I just own a mighty fine horse an' he died, an' now when I git to thinkin' about him I jest lather set straddlin' o' 'em."

"By the way, I haven't any time to spare however much inclined I might be to listen to your strange experiences. I am lost—don't know the way back to the mill. Shall I take the road?"

"Yes."

"Thank you," said the Eastern man, gathering up his horse reins.

"Not at all," the squatter answered. "The mill man rode away, and about two hours later he came upon an old fellow sitting under a tree."

"Why, here you are again," said Mr. Hoglin. "How did you get away over here?"

"Didn't. Ain't stirred sense you left 'cept to climb down outen this tree."

"Look here, you told me to take this road and—"

"Didn't tell you to take it. You asked if you wanted, an' I said yes. Allus like to be considerate, you know."

"I do not thank you for your accommodation, I assure you. I have ridden many miles to no purpose. I tell you that I am looking for my mill and—"

"Har did you lose it?"

"I look here, I'm losing patience with you."

"That's bad. Just you lost yo' mill an' now you air losin' yo' patience. Why you kaint keep nothin', ken you?"

"I do not wish to bandy words with you. Where is that mill?"

"Right down there in the hollow about two hundred yards from here."

"Why didn't you tell me at first, you—"

"Why didn't you ask me. Come along an' asked me if you want take that road, an' as I didn't have no use fur it I said you mout."

When Hoglin had ridden a short distance he looked back and saw the old fellow leaning against the tree, laughing.

A Modern Improvement.

"We've got a better scheme now than holding up a whole train," remarked a Western train robber to a friend.

"What is it?"

SLICING TO DEATH.

Barbaric Method of Torturing Condemned Murderers in China.

IT WORKED FIRST RATE.

"Why are you sitting up there straddling that fork?" the mill man asked, after a short silence.

"Well, I just own a mighty fine horse an' he died, an' now when I git to thinkin' about him I jest lather set straddlin' o' 'em."

"By the way, I haven't any time to spare however much inclined I might be to listen to your strange experiences. I am lost—don't know the way back to the mill. Shall I take the road?"

"Yes."

"Thank you," said the Eastern man, gathering up his horse reins.

"Not at all," the squatter answered. "The mill man rode away, and about two hours later he came upon an old fellow sitting under a tree."

"Why, here you are again," said Mr. Hoglin. "How did you get away over here?"

"Didn't. Ain't stirred sense you left 'cept to climb down outen this tree."

"Look here, you told me to take this road and—"

"Didn't tell you to take it. You asked if you wanted, an' I said yes. Allus like to be considerate, you know."

"I do not thank you for your accommodation, I assure you. I have ridden many miles to no purpose. I tell you that I am looking for my mill and—"

"Har did you lose it?"

"I look here, I'm losing patience with you."

"That's bad. Just you lost yo' mill an' now you air losin' yo' patience. Why you kaint keep nothin', ken you?"

"I do not wish to bandy words with you. Where is that mill?"

"Right down there in the hollow about two hundred yards from here."

"Why didn't you tell me at first, you—"

"Why didn't you ask me. Come along an' asked me if you want take that road, an' as I didn't have no use fur it I said you mout."

When Hoglin had ridden a short distance he looked back and saw the old fellow leaning against the tree, laughing.

A Modern Improvement.

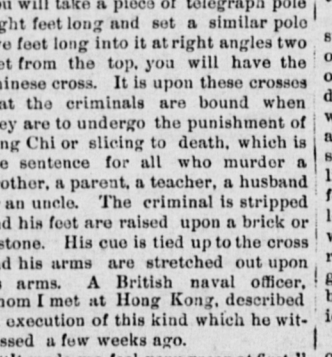

"We've got a better scheme now than holding up a whole train," remarked a Western train robber to a friend.

"What is it?"

"We simply kidnap the Pullman porter, and hold him for ransom."

SHOULD COUSINS WED.

Prominent Physicians Declare Inter-Marriage to be Unwise.

IT WORKED FIRST RATE.

"Why are you sitting up there straddling that fork?" the mill man asked, after a short silence.

"Well, I just own a mighty fine horse an' he died, an' now when I git to thinkin' about him I jest lather set straddlin' o' 'em."

"By the way, I haven't any time to spare however much inclined I might be to listen to your strange experiences. I am lost—don't know the way back to the mill. Shall I take the road?"

"Yes."

"Thank you," said the Eastern man, gathering up his horse reins.

"Not at all," the squatter answered. "The mill man rode away, and about two hours later he came upon an old fellow sitting under a tree."

"Why, here you are again," said Mr. Hoglin. "How did you get away over here?"

"Didn't. Ain't stirred sense you left 'cept to climb down outen this tree."

"Look here, you told me to take this road and—"

"Didn't tell you to take it. You asked if you wanted, an' I said yes. Allus like to be considerate, you know."

"I do not thank you for your accommodation, I assure you. I have ridden many miles to no purpose. I tell you that I am looking for my mill and—"

"Har did you lose it?"

"I look here, I'm losing patience with you."

"That's bad. Just you lost yo' mill an' now you air losin' yo' patience. Why you kaint keep nothin', ken you?"

"I do not wish to bandy words with you. Where is that mill?"

"Right down there in the hollow about two hundred yards from here."

"Why didn't you tell me at first, you—"

"Why didn't you ask me. Come along an' asked me if you want take that road, an' as I didn't have no use fur it I said you mout."

When Hoglin had ridden a short distance he looked back and saw the old fellow leaning against the tree, laughing.

A Modern Improvement.

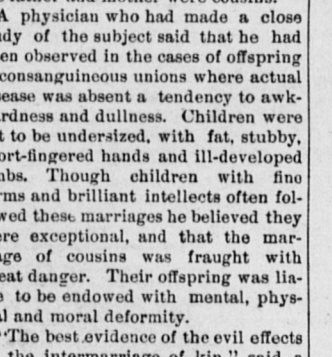

"We've got a better scheme now than holding up a whole train," remarked a Western train robber to a friend.

"What is it?"

"We simply kidnap the Pullman porter, and hold him for ransom."

Stanley's Love Affair.

Henry M. Stanley, the explorer, had an early love affair at Omaha, Neb., the particulars of which have been recently given out on "undoubted authority."

IT WORKED FIRST RATE.

"Why are you sitting up there straddling that fork?" the mill man asked, after a short silence.

"Well, I just own a mighty fine horse an' he died, an' now when I git to thinkin' about him I jest lather set straddlin' o' 'em."

"By the way, I haven't any time to spare however much inclined I might be to listen to your strange experiences. I am lost—don't know the way back to the mill. Shall I take the road?"

"Yes."

"Thank you," said the Eastern man, gathering up his horse reins.

"Not at all," the squatter answered. "The mill man rode away, and about two hours later he came upon an old fellow sitting under a tree."

"Why, here you are again," said Mr. Hoglin. "How did you get away over here?"

"Didn't. Ain't stirred sense you left 'cept to climb down outen this tree."

"Look here, you told me to take this road and—"

"Didn't tell you to take it. You asked if you wanted, an' I said yes. Allus like to be considerate, you know."

"I do not thank you for your accommodation, I assure you. I have ridden many miles to no purpose. I tell you that I am looking for my mill and—"

"Har did you lose it?"

"I look here, I'm losing patience with you."

"That's bad. Just you lost yo' mill an' now you air losin' yo' patience. Why you kaint keep nothin', ken you?"

"I do not wish to bandy words with you. Where is that mill?"

"Right down there in the hollow about two hundred yards from here."

"Why didn't you tell me at first, you—"

"Why didn't you ask me. Come along an' asked me if you want take that road, an' as I didn't have no use fur it I said you mout."

When Hoglin had ridden a short distance he looked back and saw the old fellow leaning against the tree, laughing.

A Modern Improvement.

"We've got a better scheme now than holding up a whole train," remarked a Western train robber to a friend.

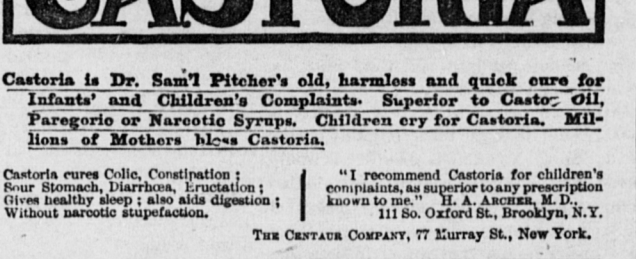

"What is it?"

"We simply kidnap the Pullman porter, and hold him for ransom."

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Sam'l Pitcher's old, harmless and quick cure for Infants' and Children's Complaints. Superior to Castor Oil, Paregoric or Narcotic Syrups. Children cry for Castoria. Millions of Mothers bless Castoria.

IT WORKED FIRST RATE.

"Why are you sitting up there straddling that fork?" the mill man asked, after a short silence.

"Well, I just own a mighty fine horse an' he died, an' now when I git to thinkin' about him I jest lather set straddlin' o' 'em."

"By the way, I haven't any time to spare however much inclined I might be to listen to your strange experiences. I am lost—don't know the way back to the mill. Shall I take the road?"

"Yes."

"Thank you," said the Eastern man, gathering up his horse reins.

"Not at all," the squatter answered. "The mill man rode away, and about two hours later he came upon an old fellow sitting under a tree."

"Why, here you are again," said Mr. Hoglin. "How did you get away over here?"

"Didn't. Ain't stirred sense you left 'cept to climb down outen this tree."

"Look here, you told me to take this road and—"

"Didn't tell you to take it. You asked if you wanted, an' I said yes. Allus like to be considerate, you know."

"I do not thank you for your accommodation, I assure you. I have ridden many miles to no purpose. I tell you that I am looking for my mill and—"

"Har did you lose it?"

"I look here, I'm losing patience with you."

"That's bad. Just you lost yo' mill an' now you air losin' yo' patience. Why you kaint keep nothin', ken you?"

"I do not wish to bandy words with you. Where is that mill?"

"Right down there in the hollow about two hundred yards from here."

"Why didn't you tell me at first, you—"

"Why didn't you ask me. Come along an' asked me if you want take that road, an' as I didn't have no use fur it I said you mout."

When Hoglin had ridden a short distance he looked back and saw the old fellow leaning against the tree, laughing.

A Modern Improvement.

"We've got a better scheme now than holding up a whole train," remarked a Western train robber to a friend.

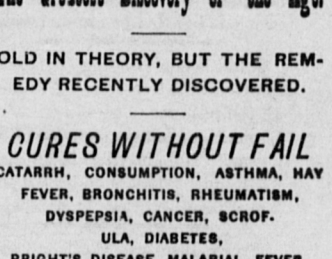

"What is it?"

"We simply kidnap the Pullman porter, and hold him for ransom."

RADAM'S

MICROBE

KILLER.

IT WORKED FIRST RATE.

"Why are you sitting up there straddling that fork?" the mill man asked, after a short silence.

"Well, I just own a mighty fine horse an' he died, an' now when I git to thinkin' about him I jest lather set straddlin' o' 'em."

"By the way, I haven't any time to spare however much inclined I might be to listen to your strange experiences. I am lost—don't know the way back to the mill. Shall I take the road?"

"Yes."

"Thank you," said the Eastern man, gathering up his horse reins.

"Not at all," the squatter answered. "The mill man rode away, and about two hours later he came upon an old fellow sitting under a tree."

"Why, here you are again," said Mr. Hoglin. "How did you get away over here?"

"Didn't. Ain't stirred sense you left 'cept to climb down outen this tree."

"Look here, you told me to take this road and—"

"Didn't tell you to take it. You asked if you wanted, an' I said yes. Allus like to be considerate, you know."

"I do not thank you for your accommodation, I assure you. I have ridden many miles to no purpose. I tell you that I am looking for my mill and—"

"Har did you lose it?"

"I look here, I'm losing patience with you."

"That's bad. Just you lost yo' mill an' now you air losin' yo' patience. Why you kaint keep nothin', ken you?"

"I do not wish to bandy words with you. Where is that mill?"

"Right down there in the hollow about two hundred yards from here."

"Why didn't you tell me at first, you—"

"Why didn't you ask me. Come along an' asked me if you want take that road, an' as I didn't have no use fur it I said you mout."

When Hoglin had ridden a short distance he looked back and saw the old fellow leaning against the tree, laughing.

A Modern Improvement.

"We've got a better scheme now than holding up a whole train," remarked a Western train robber to a friend.

"What is it?"

"We simply kidnap the Pullman porter, and hold him for ransom."

THOS. HERNDON. TOM. P. MAJOR.

HERNDON & MAJOR,

—PROPRIETORS—

Grange Tobacco Warehouse,

Clarksville, Tennessee.

Special Attention to Sampling & Selling Tobacco.

Liberal Advances Made on Consignments.

ROBT. B. WITHERS, TRAVELING SOLICITOR.

POLK CANSLER,

LIVERY, FEED & SALE STABLE.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

SOUTH KENTUCKY COLLEGE.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Spring Term of the 40th Session

Begins Tuesday, Jan. 21st, 1890.

Best advantages given in English, Ancient Languages, German, French, Book-keeping, Telegraphy, Short-hand, and Typewriting.

The Normal Department—or course for teachers—is equal to that of any school North or South. No young teacher, who has the time, can afford to miss the advantages given during the Spring Term.

The Music Department under the directions of Prof. Reichart, offers to the student advantages seldom equalled.

The Art Department is taught by a lady, who has few equals, and scarcely a superior in her line. She has had years of experience and has taught with great success in some of the best schools South.

Indeed, the faculty is complete and can meet all the practical wants of those seeking number one educational advantages.

For Catalogues, Circulars, and information call on or address,

JAMES E. SCOTT, Pres't.

or A. C. KUTNER, V. P.

MIRACLES!

Sold only in Jugs containing One Gallon.

Price Three Dollars—a small investment when Health and Life can be obtained.

"History of the Microbe Killer," Free

CALL ON OR ADDRESS

BUCKNER LEAVELL,

Hopkinsville, Ky.

Sole Agent for Christian county.

Beware of Imitations. Look out for our Trade Mark

L. & N. R. R.

—THE GREAT—

Through Trunk Line

between the cities of

Cincinnati, Lexington, Louisville

Evansville, St. Louis,

And the cities of

Nashville, Memphis, Montgomery,

Mobile, and New Orleans,

WITHOUT CHANGE!

AND SPEED UNRIVALED.

SHORTEST AND QUICKEST ROUTE

From St. Louis, Evansville and

Henderson to the

SOUTHEAST & SOUTH

Through Coaches

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. M. Hanna left this week for Eddyville.

Col. Jo. F. Foard, of Nashville, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Q. A. Elliott, of Lafayette, was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Morris Cohen has returned from a visit to Nashville.

Miss Sallie Brown, of St. Charles, Ky., is visiting Mrs. De Nisbet.

Miss Lizzie Ballard will leave next Monday for Nashville on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. J. S. Forrey has returned from an extended visit to friends and relatives in Indianapolis.

Mrs. C. J. Radford and Mrs. Jas. Radford, of Pembroke, were in the city shopping Tuesday.

Mr. John Withers, of Mississippi, a brother of R. B. Withers, was in the city this week visiting friends.

Mr. J. T. Garnett and his sisters, Misses Lide and Fannie Garnett, have returned from a three months' visit to relatives in San Antonio, Tex.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Too Fast to Catch.

A tramp stole a child's velocipede from Mr. Wm. Cowan's porch one night this week and afterwards was detected in Dr. Hickman's back yard and was frightened off, leaving the velocipede and several other stolen articles. A number of tramps were arrested, but Dr. Hickman failed to identify the guilty party.

A Regular Old-Timer.

As stated in our last issue, we are once more to have regular old-time fairs in the future. The change is certainly a great improvement, morally, and if properly conducted, will no doubt be so financially. It will meet with the approval of all our citizens, and we hope it will receive the support from all—the support and cooperation of the mechanic, farmer and stock raiser—so that there will be no question hereafter as to whether it will pay the stockholders. The people want a good fair, but in order to secure it they must take an interest in it and this encourages and aids the officers of the association in pushing it forward.

The Christian Revival.

The regular services held in the basement of the Christian church every morning are largely attended. One of the members of that denomination tells us that it is thought it will be necessary to hold these meetings in the auditorium, as the basement has already proved almost too small to hold the people who attend them. Elder Lucas' discourses, while more in the nature of lectures than sermons, are exceedingly interesting and are listened to with great interest, by members of all churches and non-professors of religion. The meetings begin promptly at 10:30 and last just one hour.

We are authorized to state that Mr. Lucas will remain with us during the coming week. The night services are so well attended that the pews will not accommodate the anxious hearers and the aisles are also filled. There is no abatement in the interest of our people or the earnestness and eloquence of Elder Lucas. There have already been several additions to the church, and great results are expected from this meeting.

Under The Hammer.

The entire household furniture, contents and effects in the elegant private residence of Mr. H. G. O'Neil, 1055 Third street, are advertised for sale. This is a great surprise to Mr. O'Neil's friends who understood that he was a man of independent fortune. Mr. O'Neil is now in New York and no one knows when he will return.

Mr. George M. Davis, who was formerly Mr. O'Neil's attorney, said last night: "I know nothing about Mr. O'Neil, further than that I understand he is now in New York, and I do not know when he will return."

Mr. O'Neil lived in magnificent style, and the effects offered for sale consist of mahogany furniture, richly upholstered, fancy and easy chairs; built cabinets in tortoise shell and mahogany, ornate, rare Dresden china, inlaid tables, bric-a-brac, about forty-five oil paintings, by such artists as Moreau, Guerrino, and Thors, and everything that goes with a complete household. A Victoria, phonograph, a cutter, and three carriage horses are also offered for sale. The sale is to take place Monday morning, March 24, at 10 o'clock.

Old Gabriel.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—The Indian known as "Old Gabriel" died at the County Hospital at Salina yesterday. There is no record of his birth, but when the Franciscan missionaries came to California more than a century ago, Old Gabriel was then a grandfater, and as far as can be learned by tradition it is believed he was born about the year 1740, and had reached the age of 150 years at the time of his death. Gabriel never used liquor or tobacco and led a peaceful life. He had children and grandchildren by the score, but outlived them all, and no direct descendants survive him.

Dyspepsia's victims are numbered by thousands. So are those who have been restored to health by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HERE AND THERE.

Vitalia Liver Pills are mild and sure.

Pure-bred Plymouth Rock eggs for sale. Apply at this office.

R. M. Wooldridge, livery, feed & sale stable, Fritz stand. Telephone 142.

So far as we are informed the storm of Tuesday night last did no damage.

Buy goods of 5—McGehee Bros.—5 Clarksville, Tenn., and save money.

Jack Lieber will re-open his barber-shop in this city about the first of April.

For rent, a large dry goods store room on N. W. cor. Main and Ninth street. D. J. Gish.

Miss Alice Hayes, in addition to her millinery stock, has quite an assortment of "Crazy quilt pieces."

There have been a few cases of scarlet fever, of a very mild form, in the city during the past few weeks.

Lost, two calico gray shepherd match dogs, with one glass eye each. Reward for their recovery. Ritter Bros.

The ground where Clark & Johnson's grocery stand is being cleared of debris preparatory to the erection of a new building.

The streets were well lighted all night Tuesday night, in consequence of the gas extinguisher's failing to make his usual round.

We can not pay for big, flaming advertisements, our profits are too small. For good, honest goods at low prices, go to Best Store Co.

Miss Alice Hayes has moved her stock of millinery in the house next door to Postoffice where she would be pleased to have her old friends and patrons call on her.

Our merchants who are beginning to receive their new spring goods, are hereby reminded the columns of the KENTUCKIAN are at their disposal for letting the people know it.

The new form for use on the back of envelopes is brief and to the point. All our merchants and business men generally should adopt this method of advertising the city and county at a distance.

S. H. Ward, a tenant on Judge Joe McCarroll's farm near the city, killed a dog a few days ago that exhibited strong symptoms of being mad. It had bitten several dogs and other animals on the farm before it was killed.

We want somebody to point to one man or firm which has started in business here without taking advantage of advertising in the local papers that has been successful. Don't everybody speak at once! Only give us time to hear the first one.

The "Jim Allenworth" whose name appeared in the police news Tuesday was not Rev. Jas. L. Allenworth, but his son. The boy was not fined as reported but was discharged, as it was shown that he had merely been frolicking with another boy.

Faint whispers have been heard of late of the organization of a gymnasium. We never throw cold water on an enterprise of any kind, but we have heard this one mentioned, and have noticed it so often in our columns, that it begins to have the flavor of a chestnut.

The Columbus Clock is now on exhibition and is all that it has been represented to be. It is well worth the price of admission to see this triumph of mechanism. It will be here only a few days and the public should lose no time in calling to see it. Anderson building, Sixth street.

Joe Foeman, the colored desperado who was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for assaulting the Clarksville Chief of Police Christmas, has had his sentence commuted by Judge Tyler to one year in the county jail. This is a case where the court has interfered with the ends of justice. Foeman is a bad egg and his first sentence was a very light one.

The books for subscription for stock in the seventeenth series of the Hopkinsville Building and Loan Association will be opened on April 1st proximo, at the office of the Treasurer at the First National Bank, at which time non-borrowers of the seventh series are requested to present their certificates of stock for redemption.

Thos. W. Long, Treas.

Important street improvements will probably be made this year. Though our streets and pavements are far better than cities having double the population of Hopkinsville, there is still great need of street work. The new cement pavements put down last year have not been fairly tested, as the winter was so mild that no one can yet determine whether the cement will stand the freezes and thaws of a severe winter.

We saw it stated in a northern paper a few days ago that artificial ice can be manufactured at a cost of 40 cents per hundred pounds. If that is the best the northern men can do, they should come down this way and get a few pointers. The Ellis Ice Co., of this city, during the season of 1888, sold their manufactured ice at half a cent per pound in quantities less than 100 pounds. Parties taking 100 pounds or over daily were furnished at 25 cents per hundred. Last season the rate was advanced. Though the company expects to have a demand for all it can manufacture this season, in consequence of no ice being housed during the past winter, it does not expect to make an advance over its prices of last year. Monopolies generally want the earth, but all will admit that the Ellis Ice Company is an exception and will give the liberal patronage that it deserves.

Correspondence.

WEBSTER COUNTY.

BLACKFORD, March 16.—La grippe is raging in this part of the country. There have been several deaths from it.

There have been some few wrecks on the O. V. Railway lately.

The back water has been higher than since '84, but it is falling slowly. Some of the families had to move out. Some of the wheat crop is drowned out.

Blackford is improving. They have cut off 43 acres of woods to build up our town.

Mr. Morgan wants one hundred tie makers at once. Work is booming. The woods are very bad.

They had big old times here yesterday. There were thirty candidates who spoke. Half of the men in this county are candidates.

Mr. J. M. Martin is very low with rheumatism.

Mr. Monroe Morgan claims to have the finest farm and the finest mare in this county.

J. W. M.

SINKING FORD.

SINKING FORD, March 19.—Mr. Wm. Wood is still selling goods at Sinking Ford.

Mrs. Vaughn has been very sick, but is better now.

Mr. J. R. Wooley has been very dull since he got back from Texas.

The Wheelers are about to take our town now, since Jack Cavanaugh joined and rode the goat.

Miss May Wood is going to teach a subscription school at Pisgah.

No tobacco plants in our portion of Christian county. G. R. STILLER.

FAIRVIEW.

FAIRVIEW, Ky., March 16.—Dr. E. T. Hughes and bride have returned from their bridal tour to the southern cities. They have taken rooms at Dr. Robert Armstrong's.

Mrs. Reeder, of Hopkinsville, after a pleasant visit to the family of G. W. Lindley, returned home last Saturday.

Miss Stella Wilkins is visiting her relatives in Hopkinsville.

Mr. J. O. McGehee is confined to his room with pleurisy.

The early tobacco plants were all killed by the recent hard frosts.

Mr. Alex. Fulcher had a plant bed on which the plants had four leaves. Who can beat that? They were all killed.

Mr. Brame, of Mo., is on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. G. W. Jesup.

The wheat fields have a sorry appearance since winter set in.

J. M. Woodson is laid up with the grip.

The farmers are very backward with their spring work.

Tobacco stripping is over with and it is weighing out light.

The flouring mill here is doing a fine business.

Mr. Eli Combs, Sr., is convalescent.

BUMBLE BEE.

BEHAVIOR, Ky., Mar. 19.—Misses Ellen Clark and Ora Cox, the most popular young ladies of the neighborhood, leave to-morrow for Pembroke to visit friends and relatives.

There will be a dance to-night at Montgomery at the late residence of Mr. J. B. McGehee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Clark and Miss Fannie West, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home in Hopkinsville.

Many of the young gents have very sad hearts and some as high as a "Cliff" since a certain red-headed girl has departed for the "West" home.

Miss Vic Meacham is visiting in Clarksville, Tenn.

Mr. Frank Cox, of Gracey, is attending the tobacco sales at Clarksville, Tenn.

Mrs. Sam McGehee is very ill at her mother's home.

Mrs. W. F. Cox and son, Walter, have returned from a pleasant visit to Princeton.

Mrs. H. C. Clark has returned home. Miss Ada B. Clark has returned home from Montgomery.

BRUNETTE.

Entitled To The Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when constipated or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Clarksville has had another big failure. Geo. W. Hendrick, a Queensware dealer, made an assignment Monday, his liabilities being $8,120 and his assets very small.

DEATHS.

Child of T. E. Booker, near Beverly, Wednesday.

COLORED.

Sarah Boales, in Hubbardville, Wednesday, aged 58 years, of cancer.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

COLORED.

Taylor Slaughter to Lula Childs. J. J. Martin to Ada Brewer. S. J. Johnson to Emma Clemens.

One of the novel features of next Summer's meeting of the Chautauqua Assembly is the Training School for University-Extension lecturers. The design of the school is to secure and train a corps of lecturers for University Extension work. Among those who will assist in the work of this Training School are some of the best public speakers of the day. Further information may be obtained from Frederick Starr, New Haven, Conn., Registrar Chautauqua University.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Five More Elections for the Penitentiary.

Motion for appeal entered by attorney for Wilson McKnight, col., sentenced 12 years for manslaughter.

Upshaw O'Brien, col., was tried for grand larceny and given four years in the penitentiary, on a plea of guilty.

Purvey Long, col., was tried and given one year in the penitentiary for grand larceny.

Com. vs. Dud McCarty. Assault with intent to rob, dismissed.

Geo. Buckner, col., and Tom Terrill, col., who recently stole a flock of bronze turkeys, were given three years each in the penitentiary.

Jim Stoner, col., charged with grand larceny, was tried on a plea of not guilty and given two years in the penitentiary.

Jim Barker, col., was placed on trial yesterday for grand larceny, in the theft of a buggy from Mr. J. T. Harris.

The Garrett Mumford murder case was set for yesterday.

The week has been taken up with commonwealth matters and no civil cases have been disposed of since last report.

TOBACCO NEWS.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET. Furnished by Glover & Durst.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,731 hds., with receipts for the same period of 1,344 hds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 33,010 hds. Sales on our market of the crop of 1889 to this date amount to 29,554 hds.

The offerings of dark tobacco on our market this week have been small for both old and new and while prices have been firm and active for the better grades there is no recent advance to report in values. The stock of old dark tobacco is being gradually reduced on our market but there is still a liberal supply of common grades on hand. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco of the crop of 1888.

Trash $1.00 to 1.25.

Com. to med. leaf $1.50 to 2.49.

Dark rich leaf $2.50 to 4.50.

Common leaf $3.50 to 4.50.

Med. to good leaf $4.50 to 5.50.

Good leaf, extra long $5.50 to 7.00.

Wrappery styles $7.50 to 12.00.

HOPKINSVILLE MARKET. Sales by Nat. Gaither Co. of 31 hds. as follows:

11 hds. medium to good leaf $5.25 to 6.75.

8 hds. common leaf $3.25 to 5.00.

12 hds. common to medium leaf $1.30 to 2.40.

Market firm with prices nearer outside quotations.

CLARKSVILLE MARKET. Sales by Meriwether & Gant, Clarksville, March 19, of 30 hds. tobacco as follows:

22 hds. leaf at $12.00, 9.75, 9.50, 9.00, 8.25, 6.50, 6.50, 5.75, 5.00, 4.80, 4.60, 4.20, 4.25, 4.10, 4.10, 4.00, 3.80, 3.50, 7.85, 6.30, 5.15.

28 hds. leaf at $1.60, 2.25, 2.50, 2.60, 1.90, 1.45, 1.10, 1.15, 2.15, 1.10, 1.45, 2.85, 2.65, 3.80, 1.60, 2.90, 2.40, 2.40, 3.10, 2.90, 3.20, 3.60, 2.10, 2.00, 2.00, 2.00, 2.00.

Market strong.

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people, in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 doses one dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

Concert To-Night.

Prof. W. G. Wimpfheimer, elocutionist and character impersonator, will give an entertainment at the Opera House this evening, assisted by Miss Rosa Steinhagen and other competent musicians. It will consist of humorous and dramatic recitals, music and military specialties. In the latter Prof. Wimpfheimer will have the assistance of Messrs. J. F. Garrity, Terry Hill, Oswin Steinhagen and Henry Tandy.

The proceeds will be devoted to the W. C. T. U. of this city. Prof. Wimpfheimer brings strong testimonials of his capability as an entertainer. Reserved seats now on sale at Galbreath's at 35 cents. General admission 25 cents.

LEMON ELIXIR.

Its Wonderful Effect on the Liver, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Blood.

Dr. Mozeley's Lemon Elixir is a pleasant lemon drink, that positively cures all Biliousness, Constipation, Indigestion, all sick and Nervous Headaches, Kidney Diseases, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Fevers, Chills, Palpitation of Heart, and all other diseases caused by disordered liver, stomach and kidneys, the first great cause of all fatal diseases. 50c. and $1 per bottle. Sold by druggists. Prepared only by H. Mozeley, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.

LEMON HOT DROPS.

For coughs and colds, take Lemon Hot Drops.

For sore throat and Bronchitis, take Lemon Hot Drops.

For pneumonia and Laryngitis take Lemon Hot Drops.

For hemorrhage and all throat and lung diseases, take Lemon Hot Drops. 25 cents at druggists. Prepared only by Dr. H. Mozeley, Atlanta, Ga.

President National Bank.

McMinville, Tenn. writes: From experience in my family, Dr. H. Mozeley's Lemon Elixir has few, if any equals, and no superiors in medicines, for the regulation of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Dr. H. Mozeley's Lemon Hot Drops are superior to any remedies we have ever been able to get for throat and lung diseases. W. H. Maness, Pres. Nat'l Bank.

NOTICE—There is a fraudulent Lemon Elixir on the market—a white substance, called Blind Tiger Drink. See that you get Dr. H. Mozeley's Lemon Elixir, an honest, reliable medicine.

OPENING!

SPRING OPENING OF MY

FINE MILLINERY

AND DRESS GOODS,

WILL BE DISPLAYED

MONDAY, MARCH 17th,

Where I cordially invite everyone to give me a call and examine the handsomest line ever shown in this city, besides I have secured in MISS MAUD KIRKPATRICK the BEST TRIMMER that could be had. Thanking you for past favors and ask a continuance of the same. Now don't forget MONDAY the 17th, will be my Spring Opening for one week.

A. A. METZ,

"Leader and Controller of Low Prices."

Open Every Night Until 9 O'clock.

Need a tonic, or even that want building up, should take BROWN'S KIDNEY PILLS. It is pleasant to take, cures Malaria, Indigestion, and Biliousness. All dealers keep it.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

Eggs, Poultry &c.

Cash paid. Geo. E. Fox, Bonte warehouse.

Oliver Plows,

Deere Steel Plows,

Deere Corn Planters,

Deere Disc Harrows

Buggies,

Wagons,

Barbed wire,

Clover and

Grass Seed,

Thompson Seed Sowers, etc., etc.

JOHN. R. GREEN CO.

Bring your engines and general machine work in before the busy season and have them repaired. Special low rates on elevator repairs.

JNO. J. METCALFE.

Chase the Hens.

Geo. E. Fox wishes a car load of Eggs and Poultry every week.

Mr. U. C. Partridge invites the public to his elegant shaving parlor, over Hooser & Ballard's, J. Lieber's old stand. All work done neatly and satisfaction guaranteed. Call on him.

The Star Barber Shop.

Gentleman desiring anything in our line will be waited upon by polite and skillful barbers.

JONES & BANKS.

GEO. E. FOX

Has opened a branch house in the Bonte Warehouse and will pay high cash price for Eggs, Poultry and Produce.

Our barbers handle the razor with ease and skill, and we feel justified in saying we can give the utmost satisfaction.

JONES & BANKS.

Wanted.

To borrow $1,500, secured by real estate worth $4,000. Address "D," this office.

A CARD.

I beg to inform my friends and the public generally that since retiring from the firm of Randle & Ely I have continued my business with the Garner Drug Co., and wish to extend many thanks for past liberal patronage during said short business career as a confectioner. I respectfully solicit a share of your patronage in the new business with which I am now connected.

Very Respectfully,
W. R. ELY.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of Randle & Ely has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. J. B. Galbreath will succeed Mr. Ely in the business, which will be continued under the firm name of Randle & Co. Mr. W. F. Randle will collect all debts due the firm of Randle & Ely and pay all claims against said firm.

Messrs. Randle and Galbreath are too well known in this community to require anything more than to say to the good people that they are now ready to serve them at the same old stand, and will in a few days offer some very cheap goods.

satisfaction guaranteed, or money remanded.—Price 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle at H. B. Garner's Pharmacy.

d of the column, but the drum-
 -or is the chap that generally gets re.—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

fulous or syphilitic poisons. Sold under a positive guarantee.

not to make a great many cutting marks.—New York Commercial Adviser.

THIS PAPER is on file in Philadelphia at the Newspaper Advertising Agency of Messrs.
J. W. AYER & SON, our authorized agents.

able trade for us, which holds for years when once started, as we are repaid. We pay all express, freight, etc. After now all, if you would like to go to work for us, you can from $20 to $60 per week and upwards. Address, on & Co., Box 512, Portland, Maine.

lowest rates, time tables, and all de-information apply to
EO. MAGRUDER, Agent, Nortonville, or
W. H. PROUTY, Gen'l Pass. Agent,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

